

CANADIAN SPORTS GALLERY

Captain Meagan McGrath crosses a crevasse on her way to the top of Mount Everest and her place in Canadian Mountaineer history. The Sudbury climber is the first Canadian Forces member and the youngest Canadian women, at age 29, to complete the "Seven Summits"... climbing the tallest peaks on all Seven continents. Starting with Kilimanjaro in Africa five years ago, she finished with Everest this year.

Photos by Captain Meagan McGrath

